

James Hicks Design

Sculptural ceramic lamps and vessels

Each piece is slip-cast and hand-finished in my studio, shaped by more than twenty-five years of exhibition and architectural design. The work is built from cut, sliced and incised planes, and finished in a studio palette of glazes, oxides and slips. Lamps are wired to US standards. Vessels are made with the same attention to edge and surface.

This sheet lists a selection of current pieces with retail and wholesale pricing. Most pieces are made to order; many are possible in other glazes and clay bodies on request, and custom work is welcome.
